

Eileen O'Brien

Biography

Eileen O'Brien is an art consultant, tapestry weaver,
Writer, lecturer, and instructor.

Her work is in private and corporate collections.

First place awards are from American Craft Museum in New York,
Mid Atlantic Fiber Association, Handweavers Guild of America and Montclair State University Scholarship Competitions.

Shows include Kyoto Museum in Japan,
Netherlands Textile Museum in Holland,
Decordova Museum in Massachusetts, Cleveland Museum of Art in Ohio,
Currier Gallery of Art in New Hampshire,
Charles Allis Art Museum in Wisconsin, Monmouth Museum in NJ,
Sheraton Hotel in Washington D.C., Bucknell University in Pennsylvania,
New Jersey Center for the Visual Arts in Summit and Montclair State University in New Jersey.

Ms. O'Brien is also president of Art Matters LLC,

A full service art consulting company.

Among her many clients are American International Group,
Avaya, Capitol One, ING, Schering Plough.

Community activities Ms. O'Brien has participated in are
New Jersey Performing Arts Center Celebrity Art Auction,
New Jersey Center for the Visual Arts Visiting Artist Program,
Union County Teen Arts Festival,
Children's Cultural Arts Council Of Morristown,
Children's Arts Festival of Montclair,
Morristown General Hospital's Pediatric Oncology Visiting Artist Program
Christchurch, Summit NJ, Music and Fine Arts Committee.